

Govt to ask Sebi to relax listing norms for SMEs

■ NEW DELHI: The government would ask market regulator Sebi to frame separate norms while setting up the exchange for small and medium enterprises so that these companies do not have to spend high on advertising for their public issues. "While setting up exchange for SMEs, Sebi should come out with separate rules so that they do not have to incur high expenses on advertising for their public issues and reports to the investors," a senior official in the ministry of micro, small and medium enterprises said.
