

NSIC launched Web portal on SME development

■ NEW DELHI: National Small Industries Corp (NSIC) has launched a Web portal which will provide information on small and medium enterprises sector. The portal would be beneficial to small and medium enterprises from 17 countries, including India, Canada and Taiwan, along with institutions who support SMEs, consulates, high commissions and ministries, a senior government official said. "The portal www.nsicpartners.com will go a long way in bringing information to the doorstep of SMEs worldwide," secretary to ministry of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSME) Dinesh Rai said.
